

2025 Reining Australia Hall of Fame

Inductee: Lilmissnoitall

Reining Australia is honoured to welcome the extraordinary mare Lilmissnoitall into the Hall of Fame – Legends Award, recognising her exceptional achievements in competition and her profound contribution to the sport's legacy in Australia.

Affectionately known as Bindi, Lilmissnoitall was a force in the show pen from her early days, capturing attention with her electric style, dependable performances, and sheer love for the spotlight. Bred by Ray Gabbert and acquired by the Neylon family in 2008, she was originally trained by Warren Backhouse, with whom she claimed the 2008 NRHA Australian National Reserve Championship and the 2009 NRHA Australian National Open Level 4 Championship.

After an early retirement to the broodmare paddock, Bindi's legacy only deepened. Her first foal, Lil Nu It All, rose to iconic status, and her subsequent offspring continue to earn both accolades and admiration across arenas. Still, Lilmissnoitall wasn't finished. She returned to the show ring in 2013, competing with Erin and Dennis Neylon, and later their daughter Clare—becoming a true family horse whose presence guaranteed smiles, cheers, and frequent trips to the winner's circle.

Her enduring show career spanned over 16 years, with highlights including:

- Championships at National and State levels across Open, Non-Pro, and Youth divisions
- A starring role at major events such as Equitana and CRI*
- Named 2015 Non-Pro Mare of the Year
- Progeny earnings exceeding $161,000, with foals by world-renowned sires
- A lifetime earnings total of $17,419

A once-in-a-generation mare, Lilmissnoitall proved time and again that greatness isn't just measured in titles, but in heart, longevity, and the joy she brought to every arena she entered. Her contribution to Australian Reining is both lasting and far-reaching, laying the foundation for a dynasty still unfolding.

In recognition of her brilliance, influence, and unforgettable performances, Reining Australia proudly honours Lilmissnoitall as a true Legend of Reining.
