

PROFESSIONAL TRAINERS

CHECKLIST

VERSION 1.0

FEBRUARY 18, 2016

Presented by:
Reining Australia

Due Diligence Checklist

The following is a checklist to assist you in fulfilling legislative requirements and working towards Professional Accreditation by April 1st 2016 and Jan 1st 2017.

Overview

Reining Australia intends supporting each applicant trainer towards Professional Accreditation. Without Professional Accreditation of trainers, Reining Australia is at risk. Mandatory requirements presented by April 1st will ensure trainers currently listed on the RA Website will continue to be endorsed.

April 1st 2016 Requirements

Checklist

- Provide RA Secretary with your ABN
 - Provide RA Secretary with your Pic Code
 - Provide RA Secretary with copy of your Level 2 First Aid.
 - Provide RA Secretary with copy of your Working with Children Check.
 - Sign RA Code of Ethics.
 - Provide RA Secretary with copy of minimum 10 million public liability cover.
-

January 1st 2017

Checklist

- Nationally Recognised Coaching Accreditation.
-

Relevant Legislation and Bodies

Australian Horse Industry Council (AHIC)

Safe Work Australia

Reining Australia has an excellent opportunity to influence the future of the industry and to ensure its success for future generations. Thank you for your contribution as an RA Professional Trainer.